

#READFORREAL READING TEAM CHALLENGE FOR FRIENDS

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☐ 1. Read every day for 10 minutes for 30 days straight. | ☐ 16. Ask someone what they are currently reading. |
| ☐ 2. Visit a library, a bookshop, or another place where you can buy or borrow books. | ☐ 17. Read for 15 minutes without checking your phone. |
| ☐ 3. Cosy evening with a book? Tag @read.forreal on Facebook or Instagram using #readforreal #europeanauthorsday and inspire others with your book choice. | ☐ 18. Read one chapter of any book. |
| ☐ 4. Create a top books list with your friends/ team/class, vote, and then read one together. | ☐ 19. Read in a new place (café, park, train, etc.). |
| ☐ 5. Talk about a region or city that interested you based on the description in a book you read or a book whose story takes place there. | ☐ 20. Join or organise a group reading session – a mini reading party! |
| ☐ 6. Attend an author event. | ☐ 21. Write a one-sentence review of a book and share it on social media using @read.forreal #readforreal #europeanauthorsday. |
| ☐ 7. Try something new – read a book from a genre you usually skip (e.g., if you love biographies, try sci-fi or fantasy). | ☐ 22. Ask a friend what they're reading right now. |
| ☐ 8. Ask a friend which book they love and why. | ☐ 23. Choose a book for a friend to read and have them choose one for you – then discuss both! |
| ☐ 9. Spend a day without your phone – just you, a book, a notebook, and a pen. (We recommend November 22 nd) | ☐ 24. Book or film? Pick a title and compare the book with its adaptation. |
| ☐ 10. Read a book about friendship. | ☐ 25. Between 11.11–12.12 post a short book recommendation on your social media use @read.forreal #readforreal |
| ☐ 11. Hold a contest for the funniest illustration inspired by a book; vote and reward the winner with a book or gift card. | ☐ 26. Organise literary charades with your group during a long break at work or school |
| ☐ 12. Tell a friend an interesting fact you read in a book that surprised you. | ☐ 27. Ask a friend about their favorite book character. |
| ☐ 13. Give a book a second chance – revisit something you abandoned before. | ☐ 28. Discuss: “What makes a friendship last?” – use literary examples at school or work. |
| ☐ 14. Ask a friend about the very first book they remember reading. | ☐ 29. Read a book while commuting or traveling. |
| ☐ 15. Organise a book swap – share a book you've read with a personal recommendation. | ☐ 30. Send us a postcard recommending an author from your country:
